Research Methodology: Conversation and Interaction Analysis in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics Education Research

Course Code: SCE317.2

Instructor: Ayush Gupta

Credits: 4

Course Outcome:

Sr. No.	On completing the course students will be able to
CO 1	To connect life and research, that is seeing connections between what they read/learn in the course and the discourses they are a part of in non-research/ non-academic settings
CO 2	To develope a familiarity with research in conversation and interaction analysis from educational settings as well as linguistics/ socio-linguistics/ anthropology/ etc
CO 3	Situate existing research within its sociocultural and historical settings
CO 4	Build self-efficacy while doing their own analysis, by orienting it to power, ethics, and values, etc.